Subjects of examination: A written test designed to evaluate knowledge, skills and /or abilities in the following areas:

Situational Judgment

These questions test for the ability to identify appropriate and effective responses to work-related challenges. You will be presented with scenarios that reflect the types of challenges one could encounter in a work environment. Each scenario will be followed by several responses to the scenario. You must rate the effectiveness of each response.

Language Fluency

These questions test for the ability to read, understand, and present a clear and accurate summary of information. For some questions, you will be given a brief reading passage followed by four statements, each summarizing the information. You must then choose the best version. For other questions, you will be given several sentences, one of which contains a spelling, grammatical, or punctuation error. You must then select the line that contains the error.

Information Ordering and Language Sequencing

These questions test for the ability to properly identify the sequence or order of events, or to organize information to fit a timeline. You will be given a brief reading passage followed by one or more questions. You must identify the proper sequence of events in order to answer one or more questions.

Problem Sensitivity and Reasoning

These questions test for the ability to apply information and to identify a problem or potential problem. For some questions, you will be given information in the form of policies, rules, regulations, or laws, which will be followed by a situation. You must then identify the problem and apply the information to select the best course of action to take. For other questions, you will be given a scenario and mock witness statements. You must use this information to answer one or more questions about the scenario.

Selective Attention

These questions test for the ability to focus on completing a task and to pay attention to important details while performing repetitive and monotonous tasks. You will be presented with a series of letters, symbols, and/or numbers. You must select the choice that contains the series of letters, symbols, and/or number that matches exactly.

Visualization

These questions test for the ability to imagine how something will look when it is moved around or when its parts are changed, moved, or rearranged. You will be presented with an image of a face followed by four images of faces. Each face is disguised or altered in some way. Three of the images have a difference in facial structure or facial features. You must select the choice that contains the image with the identical facial structure and facial features.

Spatial Orientation

These questions test for the ability to understand how to navigate within spaces or how to get from one point to another. You will be provided with a map followed by one or more questions. You must imagine yourself at a certain location and orient yourself to the direction in which you would move to get to another location by the shortest (least distance) route.

Test guide:

A Guide for the Written Test for Entry-Level Law Enforcement is available at the New York State website: <https://www.cs.ny.gov/testing/testguides.cfm>. Candidates not having access to a computer or the internet may request copy of the test guide from the municipal civil service office conducting this examination using the contact information found elsewhere on this announcement.

Qualifying Physical Fitness Test The three elements measured in the qualifying physical fitness test are muscular endurance (core body), muscular endurance (upper body), and cardiovascular capacity. The following is a brief description of the physical fitness test.

Sit-up Muscular endurance (core body) -The score indicated below is the number of bent-leg sit-ups performed in one minute.

Push Up Muscular endurance (upper body) -The score below is the number of full body repetitions that a candidate must complete without breaks.

1.5 Mile Run Cardiovascular capacity - The (time) score indicated below is calculated in minutes:seconds.

GENDER/AGE	T E S T
MALE	SIT-UP	PUSH-UP	1.5 MILE RUN
20-29	38	29	12:38
30-39	35	24	12:58
40-49	29	18	13:50

The Municipal Police Training Council adopted the physical fitness-screening test based on the model formulated by the Cooper Institute of Aerobics Research. The minimum passing scores, depending on age and gender, represent the 40th percentile of physical fitness as established by the Cooper Institute. If a candidate does not successfully score to the 40th percentile of fitness for each of the elements of the test battery, the candidate shall not be deemed to have successfully completed the physical fitness screening test.

Herkimer County will no longer accept results for the physical fitness test from any outside agency. All candidates must take and pass a physical fitness test administered by the Herkimer County Personnel Department.

Retest Policy – Physical Fitness Test

When a candidate fails any or all portions of the required physical fitness test for law enforcement positions, he/she shall have the opportunity for one (1) retest. Candidates will be contacted by the Herkimer County Personnel Department for the purpose of scheduling the retest.

The retest will be scheduled not sooner than thirty (30) calendar days but no later than sixty (60) calendar days from the date that they failed to successfully compete the first physical agility test. Herkimer County reserves the right to adjust the timeframes based on availability of the facilities and instructor.

The candidates' failure to complete the agility retest within the timeframe specified above shall result in the removal of their name from the applicable eligible list(s).

Physical fitness test and medical standards are available for review on our website or in the Herkimer County Personnel Office at the Herkimer County Office Building, 109 Mary Street, Room 304, Herkimer, New York.

Use of calculators is PROHIBITED for this exam.
